

I enjoy the breadth of programming offered by XM Radio so much that I am quite willing to pay the monthly fee for a subscription. Part of the XM advantage is that listeners can hear their favorite music and news, as well as get updates on weather and traffic just as could be obtained from a free AM or FM station. I pay extra money each month to enjoy XM stations. Why should I receive less content? Please help me understand.